Information on the Notes

Citigroup Funding Inc. (the "Issuer") has issued Equity Linked Securities ("ELKS") based upon the common stock of Halliburton Company ("Halliburton"). The ELKS were priced at $10 each and mature in September or October 2009.

ELKS are equity-linked investments that offer current income as well as limited protection against the decline in the price of Halliburton common stock and are not principal protected. The ELKS will pay a semi-annual coupon amount.

At maturity, investors will receive for each ELKS:

- (i) A fixed number of shares of Halliburton common stock, if Halliburton stock trades at a price equal to or below a price approximately 25% below the current price (actual amounts to be determined on the pricing date) from the pricing date up to and including the valuation date in 2009; or
- (ii) $10.00 per ELKS.

Since all payments which may be due to holders of ELKS are the sole responsibility of the Issuer, it is the credit of Citigroup Funding Inc. which stands behind the ELKS.

Investors in ELKS will not be entitled to any rights with respect to Halliburton until such time as the Issuer shall deliver Halliburton shares to investors in the ELKS, if applicable.

It is expected that the market value of the ELKS will depend substantially on the value of Halliburton and may be affected by a number of other interrelated factors including, among other things: the general level of interest rates, the volatility of Halliburton stock, the time remaining to maturity, the dividend yield of Halliburton stock, and the credit ratings of the Issuer.

Investors should note that Halliburton is not involved in the subject offering and has no obligation with respect to these securities whatsoever, including any obligations with respect to the principal amount to be paid at maturity, or to take the needs of the Issuer or holders of ELKS into consideration. Any dividends or distributions to the underlying common stock will not be paid to holders of ELKS.

The Trustee for the securities is The Bank of New York.
